Dear Parent/Carer

Of all days my email and internet went down at noon today, and as such I could not receive fully up to date information. Having now arrived home I have access to email, Show My Homework and our website, hence the reason, and apologies, for the late update.

Scottish Government has announced schools across Scotland will close after Friday. We are working with them to ensure continued support for young people preparing for exams and all those families affected.

The First Minister highlighted 'the need for arrangements to be put in place to deal with: pupils in receipt of free school meals; pupils taking SQA exams; and pupils of parents who are critical workers (NHS and emergency services). As there will be flexibility about local approaches to these issues, planning by individual Councils will now take place.'

We will provide more info as soon as we can, hopefully tomorrow afternoon or evening.

Please follow the council on Twitter @RenCouncil for the latest updates and visit www.nhsinform.scot/coronavirus for health advice.

I am aware that there are uncertainties at this very difficult time, but please rest assured we will do everything we can to support our children. As always, please feel free to contact me should you wish me to explain further.

Yours sincerely

Colin Johnson
