THE ANTI-LITTER MOVEMENT

The anti-litter group has begun the push to end litter in our school. The opportunity to become involved in the group and receive a Q card expires on Friday the 24 October. We will be aiming to make Gryffe a litter free school and we need everyone's support to do this. Show respect to those helping to clean up our school and do your bit. Put your rubbish in the bin.

YOUNG ENTERPRISE 2014–15 – OPPARTUNITY

This year's Young Enterprise Team have set up an exciting new business called OPPARTUNITY. The aims and visions of the business are to promote and give opportunities to young local artists of the future by selling their art work either as originals, prints or in the form of mugs, calendars and other accessories.

The team have approached the primary schools and other secondary schools in the area and are currently in the process of collecting work to display in an Art Gallery, as well as setting up sales opportunities.

If you are interested in having OPPARTUNITY promote and sell your Art or Photography work, please let Miss Inglis, Mrs Dunlop, Mrs MacDonald or Kadey Adams know ASAP.
